

THE IDEAS SUITE

The ongoing challenge of attracting doctors to regional and rural areas is being tackled by the Ochre Health initiative, s...

By Bruce Roberts

WIN WIN Hobart, Hobart, WIN News at 18:11 4 Sep 2019 6:11 PM

The ongoing challenge of attracting doctors to regional and rural areas is being tackled by the Ochre Health initiative, starting with Scottsdale. Ochre Medical Centre Scottsdale Medical Head Dr Natali Burch has seen GPs coming and going. Dorset Mayor Greg Howard says they have been looking to retain doctors long-term. Ochre aims to sponsor training with a program through the Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicines Independent Pathway.

Health (1) Medical Centre (2) Ochre (5)

INTERVIEWEES

Greg Howard, Dorset Mayor | Dr Natali Burch, Scottsdale Medical Head, Ochre Medical Centre has

VISUALS

Ochre

▶ Available formats ↔ Share 🗨 Feedback 🔴 Negative ▼

---

 NO COMMENTS ▼

---

ITEM HISTORY ▼

Item ID: X00080198962
Audience: 11,000 (7,000 female 16+ / 4,000 male 16+)
ASR: 627 AUD
Location: Hobart
Region: TAS
Duration: 1mins 34secs
Type: TV